

I think it is important to limit ownership of media outlets to ensure the continuation of free speech in our country. Diversity is our strength and only with diversity will we get all the information we need to stay informed and have a voice to influence others including our elected officials.